Word Problems :: Simple Addition

We saw lots of clowns in a tiny car at the circus. First four clowns came out, then seven more followed. How many clowns came out of the car?

Write the problem: 4 + 7 = ?

_____

Answer: 11

_____

Our cat likes to chase mice. She chased two mice in the morning, then fifteen more in the afternoon. How many did she chase in all.

Write the problem:

_____

Answer:

_____

Our dad made us a giant banana split. He used six scoops of chocolate ice cream and six scoops of vanilla. How many scoops total did he use?

Write the problem:

_____

Answer:

_____

My friend bought four stamps, then he bought four more. How many stamps did he buy in all?

Write the problem:

_____

Answer:

_____

My mom has twelve books on poetry and five books on math. How many books does she have in all?

Write the problem:

_____

Answer:

_____

We saw lots of clowns in a tiny car at the circus. First four clowns came out, then seven more followed. How many clowns came out of the car?

Write the problem: 4 + 7 = ?

Answer: 11

Our cat likes to chase mice. She chased two mice in the morning, then fifteen more in the afternoon. How many did she chase in all.

Write the problem: 2 + 15 = ?

Answer: 17

Our dad made us a giant banana split. He used six scoops of chocolate ice cream and six scoops of vanilla. How many scoops total did he use?

Write the problem: 6 + 6 = ?

Answer: 8

My friend bought four stamps, then he bought four more. How many stamps did he buy in all?

Write the problem: 4 + 4 = ?

Answer: 8

My mom has twelve books on poetry and five books on math. How many books does she have in all?

Write the problem: 12 + 5 = ?

Answer: 17